Dramatic Assassination Described Shows Three Soldiers Killed Him.

ERDAM, Nov. 4.—The Berlin as Zeitung contains a dramatic tion of the assassination of Stephen Tisza, former premier lagary, hast week.

At 5 o'clock in the evening three soldiers invaded Count Tisza residence and presented themselves in the drawing room. Count Tisza, with his wife and the Countess Almassy, advanced to meet the intruders, asking what they wanted.

"What have you in your hand?" a soldier demanded of Tisza.

Tisza replied that he held a revolver. The soldier told him to put it away, but Tisza replied:

but Tissa replied:
"I shall not, because you have not laid aside your rifles."
The soldiers then requested the wom-The soldiers then requested the women to leave the room, but they declined. A soldier addressed Tisza: "You are responsible for the destruction of millions of people, because you caused the war."

Raising their rifles, the soldiers

shouted:
"The hour of reckoning has come."
The soldiers fired three shots and Tisza fell. His last words were:
"I am dying. It had to be."
The soldiers quitted the house, accompanied by gendarmes, who previously were employed to guard the door.

War News Gives Good Tone to Peace Shares in Early Trading.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—There was an excited advance at the opening of the cotton market today, with first prices firm on active buying for both accounts. December sold up to 28 15c and January to 27.5cc, with active months generally selling 38 to 29 points above the closing prices of Saturday. Firmer cables and the Austrian news seemed to stimulate the buying, although the market has recently been sold on improving peace prospects, and many were more inclined to attribute the advance to the firm spot situation in the South. There was a good deal of realizing at the higher level and fluctuations right after the call were extremely nervous and irregular.
